A CURATED EXPERIENCE FOR THE DISCERNING TRAVELER

The Whale Season Spectacle

February and March mark the zenith of the Humpback migration. While others book crowded tour boats, your experience is entirely private.

From your own oceanfront Lanai, witness the 40-ton giants of the Pacific breach and play just yards from the shore. This is the front-row seat that money usually can't buy—unless you know where to stay.

Waking Up to the Ocean

The master suites are designed to blur the line between indoor luxury and the natural world. Fall asleep to the rhythmic sound of waves crashing against the lava rock.

Each suite offers privacy and comfort, ensuring that even with a full house of 12 guests, everyone has their own secluded retreat.
